

- 3.3 Polycide – only gate electrode treated with a refractory metal. Salicide – gate and source and drain are treated. The salicide should have higher performance as the resistance of source and drain regions should be lower. (Especially true at RF and for analog functions).